The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 24. to Tuesday July 27. 1714.

Warsaw, July 14. N. S.

SEveral of the Senators are gone to meet King Auguſtus at Reizen. Count Denhoff, Chancellor of Lithuania, is arrived here with an Order from his Majeſty to General Janus, to ſend eight Saxon Regiments of Horſe and ſix of Foot from hence into their own Country. It is hoped theſe Directions will quiet the Minds of the Nobility and People, who have made great Complaints of the long continuance of thoſe Troops in the Kingdom, and the exceſſive Contributions they were forced to pay for their Subſiſtance. A Turkiſh Miniſter is expected here very ſoon, to ſettle ſome Points in the Treaty between the Ottoman Port and and this Republick, that could not be adjuſted with the Palatin of Mazovia, our Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople. We are informed, that the Muſcovite Troops have quitted their Camp near Riga, and are marching towards the Ducal Pruſſia. They write from Caminiec, that the Turks had augmented the Garriſon of Chocim to Fifteen thouſand Men. The Fortifications of that Place were carried on with great diligence, and it was thought they would be finiſh'd in a ſhort time. The Seraskier Bacha had likewiſe cauſed Three hundred new Houſes to be built there, and had promiſed great Privileges to all Tradeſmen that would ſettle in the Town.

Vienna, July 18. N. S. The Emperor hath named Count Koningſeck for his Ambaſſador to the Court of France, but he is to go firſt into Holland, in order to Treat upon the Subject of the Barrier with the Deputies of the States General. It is ſaid Prince Eugene will ſet out for the Congreſs of Baden, as ſoon as he hath ſettled ſome Affairs with Baron Hundeim, the Elector Palatin's Miniſter, who arrived here on the 15th Inſtant. His Imperial Majeſty hath ſent to all the Princes of the Empire to come and receive Inveſtiture of their reſpective Dominions. Prince Emanuel of Savoy is gone Poſt to Bohemia, and the Prince of Lichtenſtein is returned hither from Moravia. It is ſaid the Emperor will ſet out on the 20th of next Month for Preſbourg, in order to put an End to the Diet of Hungary, and that the Empreſs will go about the ſame time to drink the Waters at Baden. A great quantity of Cannon, Mortars, and other Warlike Ammunition hath been lately embark'd on the Danube to ſupply the Frontier Places of Germany, where they were wanted. We have receiv'd an account from Tranſilvania, that the Workmen employed in the Fortifications of Weiſſenbourg had found ſeveral antient Medals and Coins of Gold, Silver and Braſs, as they were digging the Ground. They write from Prague, that the violent Rains and Storms had done a great deal of Miſchief in the Country thereabouts, eſpecially in the Diſtrict of Hoisback, where fifteen Houſes in one Village, were blown down to the Ground, and fifty Perſons killed by the Ruins. Letters from Conſtantinople bring an account, That the King of Sweden continued ſtill at Demir Tocca, but that he was reſolved to ſet out from thence about the middle of next Month, for which purpoſe he only waited for a Paſſport from the Ottoman Port, and it was ſaid he would return home through the Emperor's Hereditary Countries.

Dreſden, July 24. N. S. We are informed that King Auguſtus, accompanied by ſeveral of his Miniſters, arrived on the 18th at Reizen in Great Poland. He was met there by the Great Chancellor, and his Majeſty hath ſince ſent for ſeveral other Poliſh Senators, in order to hold a great Council upon the preſent ſituation of his Affairs, and particularly in relation to the Anſwer it may be proper to give the Tartarian Envoy, who is already on his way to Reizen. The Pruſſian Forces are aſſembled at Landsberg, where they wait for Orders from the King their Maſter. The Saxon Troops in Poland have built a new Bridge of Boats upon the Viſtula near Thorn, in order to join thoſe that are upon their return from Lithuania. Count Wackerbaert is gone from hence to the Court of Vienna, where he is to reſide on the Part of his Majeſty. Baron Goertz, Miniſter of Holſtein, is expected in a Day or two at Leipſick from Berlin.

Paris, July 28. N. S. His Majeſty hath appointed Monſieur Fagon, Maſter of the Requeſts, to be Intendant of the Finances, in the room of Monſieur de Monbuiſon, who hath reſigned that Employment upon account of his ill Health. The Algerines have ſent hither Five and twenty Knights of Malta, whom they had taken Priſoners; upon which, the King hath ordered the Slaves of that Nation at Marſeilles to be likewiſe ſet at liberty. The Inhabitants of St. Lewis, and Notre Dame, have engaged to pay the Sum of Two hundred thouſand Livres for a Bridge, which is to be built between thoſe two Iſlands. They write from Catalonia, that on the 9th Inſtant, the Marquis d'Aligre diſcover'd a Fleet, conſiſting of Forty five Sail, laden with Ammunition and Proviſions of all kinds, coming from Majorca: Whereupon he immediately prepared to Attack them, and after an Engagement that laſted ſeveral Hours, he took Twenty Veſſels, ſunk one, and put the reſt to flight. Mareſchal Berwick arrived on the 9th at the Camp. On the 12th the Trenches were opened before Barcelona, and carried the ſame Night within One hundred Fathom of the advanc'd Works. The next Day the Beſieg'd made two Salleys, but were repulſed each time with conſiderable Loſs. The ſame Letters add, that the Spaniſh Infantry had been ſent away, the Horſe with the Walloons, the French Troops being thought ſufficient to carry on the Siege.

Hague, July 31. N. S. The States of Holland and Weſt-Frieſland, before their Separation, order'd an Edict to be publiſh'd, forbidding, under very ſevere Penalties, the bringing of Cattle out of the Province of Frieſland, where the Infection is very much encreaſed of late. Yeſterday the Earl of Stratford was in Conference with the Great Penſionary Heinſius. The Squadron of Men of War deſigned for the ſecurity of the Dutch Trade in the Baltick, is preparing with all poſſible Expedition. Advice has been brought to Amſterdam, that Eighteen Eaſt India Ships were come within ſight of the Texel. We are informed, that Prince Eugene and Mareſchal Villars will go to the Congreſs of Baden about the middle of next Month, in order to ſign the Treaty in Latin, that was ſigned before in French at Raſtad, both Parties being reſolved not to conſent to any Alterations.

Whitehall, July 24. Her Majeſty hath been pleaſed to appoint the Right Hon. Francis Lord Guilford, Sir Philip Meadows, Senior, Kt. Arthur Moore, Eſq; Sir John Hinde Cotton, Bar. John Sharp, Samuel Pytts, and Thomas Vernon, Eſqrs; to be Her Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations.

At